4. All equipment hired is subject to the conditions of hire as printed on the back of contract/invoice of hire

6. If you place a written order based on a quotation we give you and the order involves a series of products received by us then no contract comes into existence until we give you written acceptance. However, if, in the interim, we receive products we have ordered on your behalf, before notifying our acceptance in writing of your written order, then each product we receive constitutes a separate contract that is subject to the terms of the quotation.

You do not have an "approved account" with us unless we notify you in writing to that effect. We reserve the right, at any time and without giving a reason, to withdraw your "approved account" status ("approved account" means that you must pay us within 7 days from the date we issue an invoice to you) (ie once we receive the goods and they are ready for collection/delivery).
